

Practice radio messages

Sample Routine Message:

TL 25 (After verifying an open channel): Hub 4, this is team 25 with a routine message, over.

Hub 4: Team 25, send your message, over.

TL25: Hub 4, this is team 25 reporting that we have assembled our team at the assembly area and have nothing more to report at this time, over.

Hub 4: Team 25, this is Hub 4. Copy. Out.

Sample Priority message:

TL1 (After verifying an open channel): Hub 5, this is team 1 with a priority message, over.

Hub 5: Team 1, this is Hub 5, Send your priority message, over.

TL1: Hub 5, this is team 1. We have three seriously injured and four minor injuries to report, over.

Hub 5: Team 1, this is Hub 5. Give your seriously injured first, over.

TL1: Hub 5, this is team 1. First serious injury is at 12345 Tall Trees Court. Fractured arm, splint applied, patient calm, over.

Hub 5: Team 1, this is Hub 5, copy. Give next serious injury report, over.

Sample routine message:

TL4 (After verifying an open channel): Hub 6, this is team 4 with a routine message, over.

Hub 6: Team 4, this is Hub 6, standby, over.

Hub 6: Team 4, this is Hub 6. Give your routine message, over.

TL4: Hub 6, this is team 4. We need helpers from nearby teams 6, 8, 9, or 10 if they can spare the people, over.

Hub 6: Team 4, this is Hub 6. Be specific. How many and what type of help do you need, over.

TL 4: Hub 6, this is team 4. We need two volunteers to clear road debris for access to Clubhouse Drive, over.

Hub 6: Team 4, this is Hub 6. I will attempt to find you two volunteers to clear debris for access to Clubhouse Drive, and then get back to you, over.

TL4: Hub 6, this is team 4. Copy. Standing by, over and out.

Sample emergency message:

TL11 (After verifying an open channel): Hub 7, this is team 11 with an emergency message, over.

Hub 7: Team 11, this is Hub 7. Give your emergency message, over.

TL11: Hub 7, this is team 11. We have a resident who is experiencing a seizure and needs immediate medical attention, over.

Hub 7: Team 11, this is Hub 7. I will pass this emergency message on to the EOC and get back, over.

TL11: Hub 7, this is team 11. Copy. Standing by for response to our emergency, over and out.